The Play

Bristol Old Vic

King St, Bristol BS1 4ED

London Road documents the events of 2006, when the quiet rural town of Ipswich was shattered by the discovery of the bodies of five women.

The residents of London Road had struggled for years with frequent soliciting and kerb crawling on their street. When Steve Wright, the occupant of No. 79, was arrested, charged and then convicted of the murders, the community grappled with what it meant to be at the epicentre of this tragedy.

Adam Cork's music uses the melodic speech patterns captured on Alecky Blythe's recorded interviews with the people of Ipswich to create this extraordinary work.

London Road premiered at the National Theatre, where it enjoyed a sell-out run. Here's what the critics had to say about that production:

BEST MUSICAL - Critics' Circle Award
SHOW OF THE YEAR - Time Out

Captivating... A startling, magically original success"

Evening Standard

Genuinely groundbreaking. Something very new for the musical form; raw humanity captured in music"

Time Out

A quietly stunning achievement... The creative daring and needling intelligence of London Road returns the complex texture of human life to musical theatre"

Sunday Times
